WEEK: 3

FEATURES OF DRAMA

Characteristics of drama are:

1. Idea/Plot: this tells us how the story is arranged. A plot can be chronological; this means the story is written/told from the beginning, the middle and the end. While linear plot can be from the end, the beginning and middle or otherwise.
2. Theme: this is the subject matter/main topic of the story.
3. Setting tells us the time or place where the drama was acted.
4. Theatre is a building where the plays are performed.
5. Stage: the stage is where the actors and actresses stand when they perform. It is usually a raised portion of the theatre.
6. Audience: this is a group of people who come to watch a play or listen to a concert.
7. Actors and actresses: these are the people who act plays or movies.
