

LESSON NOTE FOR WEEK FOUR (4)

TOPIC : PROMOTING PEACEFUL LIVING IN THE SOCIETY

MEANING OF PEACE

Peace can be defined as a situation whereby people live and work together without fear, conflict, war, or disagreement. Positive peace is when there is no problem of conflict or war in the society and negative peace exists when law enforcement agencies make people live peacefully by force.

IMPORTANCE OF PEACE

1. There will be no fear in living with people.
2. There will be cooperation among members of the society.
3. People will be able to work together to make the society grow and develop.
4. A peaceful environment will attract both external and internal investors.
5. Laws and orders are easily maintained .
6. It gives room for government to plan and execute policies without delay.

WAYS OF PROMOTING PEACE

1. Tolerance
2. Respect of Human rights
3. Education on the need for peaceful living
4. The use of mass media to promote the idea of peace.
5. Discipline among members of the society.
6. Religious leaders etc.

Assignment:

Differentiate between the types of peace.