

UNEMPLOYMENT

Unemployment is a situation where people who fall within the age of working are willing to work but can not find job

TYPES OF UNEMPLOYMENT

1. Voluntary unemployment: people are unemployed because they chose not to accept the employment offered
2. Technological unemployment this is the switching from labour intensive to capital intensive in production
3. Seasonal unemployment : this is where people are employed in one season and unemployed in another season
4. Frictional unemployment : this occur when one leaves a job with the hope of getting a better job but fail to do so
5. Search unemployment : this happens when one turn down job offer in search of another job

CAUSES OF UNEMPLOYMENT

1. Absence of industries
2. Poor agricultural system
3. High cost of education
4. Over population
5. Faulty educational system

HOW TO SOLVE UNEMPLOYMENT

1. Making agriculture attractive
2. Restructuring the educational system to aid self-employment

3. Provision of social amenities
4. Encouraging geographical mobility of labour
5. Achieving industrialization