

WEEK SIX (6)

TOPIC : NON-CENTRALIZED STATE – URHOB0

Urhobo people are one of the largest ethnic group in Delta state. Urhobo people are located in south Southern part of Nigeria in the Niger Delta area.

Urhobo people share more affinity to Edo people of Benin, the Ijaw people and the Igbo people. Urhobo territory was occupied towards the end of Ogiiso Dynasty around 1170AD. This was a period when a group of people occupying Benin land left Edo in search of a new land where they can farm on and call their own. In other words, Urhobo land was occupied between 1200AD and 1500AD. Each of these groups eventually came together to form Urhobo nation. Take for instance, the Orogun, Olomu, Aghon, Abraka, Utuo, Uwherun and Mototo clans migrated from Benin land and are linked to Benin Kingdom. The Ewreni, clan migrated from Igbo land and a link to Igbo people. The Ughelli, Ewu, Agbarho, Ogele Ogo and Ughienvwe clans migrated from Ijaw land and are linked to the Ijaw people.
